

Welcome English and Chinese Speaking students

First Drive Driving school is the First driving school in Nonthaburi province certified by the Department of Land Transport, Minister of Transport.

We provide one-stop service from providing the driving course to getting the driving license.

- All students are required to take a 15-hours driving course (as required by the department of Land Transport) including a tutorial 5 hours and a practical training 10 hours (both in our own driving field and on the real road).
- Once you have registered, you could choose your preferred date and time for driving courses and also the exam date!!!
- After completing the courses, you could do both a paper test (E-exam) at our E-exam room and a practical test at our own driving field with our instructors as the examiners.
- Once you pass the test, we will provide the driving certificate to you and you need to take it with the medical certificate, your work permit or at least one year temporary visa and the passport to register a driving license at any provincial land transport offices in Thailand.
